Wellspring Opens New Offices in Antelope Valley and West Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES –Wellspring is expanding and continuing to grow in Southern California. Wellspring opens two new offices to handle cases of autism in children in Southern California. Autism is the fastest-growing developmental disorder with roughly 1% of U.S. children affected by Autism Spectrum Disorder. Wellspring has experienced exceptional success in helping children with autism and other behavior disorders reach their potential. As more children are being diagnosed with autism, it made sense for Wellspring to broaden their reach and open offices in Antelope Valley and West Los Angeles.

The Antelope Valley office will increase Wellspring's coverage in the north to serve the greater Antelope Valley including Acton, Littlerock, Pearblossom, Palmdale, Quartz Hill, Lancaster and families affiliated with Edwards Air Force base. The new office in West Los Angeles on Olympic Boulevard will focus on serving clients in Century City, Santa Monica, Brentwood, Pacific Palisades, Marina del Rey, Culver City and surrounding areas. These two new offices are in addition to Wellspring's other office locations in Irvine, North Hills, Pasadena, Thousand Oaks and Valencia.

Wellspring is one of the fastest growing companies in United States in the field of Autism Treatment. Wellspring has pioneered the first national preferred provider network dedicated to Autism treatment by working with insurance companies and health plans to expand behavior therapy services using the principles of Applied Behavior Analysis (ABA). Wellspring employs ethical and experienced professionals throughout the U.S. who are passionate about meeting the behavioral needs of their clients and improving their quality of life. Wellspring is committed to being at the forefront of the behavioral health services industry and a leader of autism treatment. The company is on the cutting edge of the latest research, updated educational plans, business trends and technology to ensure the success of its employees and its clients.
