Wellspring Expands and Opens Corporate Headquarters in Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES – At a time when most companies are downsizing, Wellspring is expanding and continuing to grow and flourish. Recently, Wellspring constructed a new 4,200 square foot Corporate Headquarters in Los Angeles to centralize all of their corporate departments. This new space will allow more meeting space for high profile meetings, think tank sessions and centralized office space for executive and management staff. “We are finally able to bring all our corporate staff under one roof and have creative synergies amongst all support teams to better service our rapidly expanding provider network needs around the country,” commented Leo Landaverde, CEO at Wellspring.

Wellspring’s Corporate Headquarters has a spacious interior and provides ample conference seating for planning and strategy meetings. Along with providing space for meetings, the Corporate Headquarters is filled with Wellspring’s top executive management team and their supporting departments. The management team is responsible for the overall company vision and strategy to achieve financial and market share targets. The new corporate space brings all of Wellspring’s leadership staff in one centralized location and will greatly increase overall efficiencies of the departments.

Wellspring is one of the fastest growing companies in United States in the field of Autism Treatment. Wellspring has pioneered the first national preferred provider network dedicated to Autism treatment by working with insurance companies and health plans to expand behavior therapy services using the principles of Applied Behavior Analysis (ABA). Wellspring employs ethical and experienced professionals throughout the U.S. who are passionate about meeting the behavioral needs of their clients and improving their quality of life. Wellspring is committed to being at the forefront of the behavioral health services industry and a leader of autism treatment. The company is on the cutting edge of the latest research, updated educational plans, business trends and technology to ensure the success of its employees and its clients.
